

$3,600,000 TOTAL OF CAMPAIGN COSTS

Statements of Expenses to October 18 Are Filed By Principal Parties.

Washington.—The presidential campaign up to October 18 had cost more than $3,600,000. Sworn statements filed with the clerk of the house of representatives by the treasurers of the principal parties show these totals expended:

Republican national committee, $2,741,603.34.
Democratic national committee, $699,971.69.
Socialists national committee, $45,478.86.

Contributions to the campaign funds aggregated about $3,325,000, the republican national committee reporting $2,466,019.54, democratic national committee $677,934.87, and the socialists $51,628.24. The democratic congressional committee received $13,475.75 and the similar republican organization $116,790.

The socialist party committee also showed a surplus of receipts over expenditures.

Both republican and democratic reports showed hundreds of $1000 donations, while larger items were few and far between.

It was stated that there were but 16 of these larger contributions in the republican list and not more than 24 in the democratic.

PLAN REORGANIZATION OF NATIONAL GUARD

Washington.—Immediate reorganization of the national guard is deemed advisable, said an announcement by the war department. The reserve and national guard officers of the general staff have been ordered to visit each corps area headquarters and advise with the corps area commanders and the state authorities regarding organization of the guard divisions allocated to the various corps areas. The table of tentative allotments has been prepared, showing the number of troops to be organized in each state, under the national defense act.

A minimum enlisted strength of approximately 427,000 men must be provided as the peace organization of the national guard.

WEALTH $51 PER CAPITA

$5,479,681,695 Held Outside of Government Agencies.

Washington.—Distribution of the money in the country outside of the amount held in the treasury and federal reserve system was estimated at $51.06 per capita on September 1, or an increase of $13.18 over July 1, 1917, by the federal reserve board.

The board put the general stock of money in the country on September 1 at $7,997,080,820, the amount held in the treasury at $485,884,277, the amount held by federal reserve banks at $2,031,514,928, and the amount held outside these government agencies at $5,479,681,695.

Railroad Man's Home Bombed.

Seattle, Wash. — Explosion of a bomb, thrown through the front window of a house occupied by F. R. Shong, general claim agent here for the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, wrecked the lower floor of the two-story residence early Monday. Four persons in the house escaped without injury. Mr. Shong was unable to assign any reason for the attack.

Court Went Act on Peace Resolution.

Washington.—The supreme court refused to grant the request of Harry S. Mescartney, a Chicago lawyer, that it assume original jurisdiction over his suit brought in the District of Columbia courts to compel Secretary of State Colby to promulgate the peace resolution passed last May by congress. President Wilson vetoed the resolution and it was not passed over his veto.

Billions Carried in People's Pockets.

Washington. — The people of the United States are carrying around in their pockets or hiding at home $2,000,000,000 of American currency, or nearly one-half of the total supply. Fred W. Ellsworth vice-president of the Hibernia Bank & Trust company of New Orleans, declared in an address here before the convention of the American Bankers' association.

Two Decline Shipping Board Berths.

Washington. — Theo. Marburg of Baltimore has declined an appointment as a member of the United States shipping board, the White House announced. Gavin McNab of San Francisco also declined to serve and notified the president last week of his inability to accept the appointment.

Why Stand for Them Any Longer?

The remedy is simple: Vote the Republican ticket on November 2 and put the United States Government on a sane, constructive, protective basis, in the hands of competent men.

Here's the Way Out:

"The Republican party reaffirm its belief in the protective principle and pledges itself to a revision of the tariff as soon as conditions shall make it necessary for the preservation of the home market for American labor, agriculture and industry." Republican Platform.

"I PROPOSE TO DO ALL IN MY POWER, IF ELECTED, TO RESTORE THE PROTECTIVE TARIFF AND STOP THE DUMPING OF CHEAP FOREIGN GOODS AND AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS ON THE AMERICAN MARKET IN COMPETITION WITH AND TO THE GREAT DETRIMENT OF OUR FARMERS AND WORKERS."—Robert N. Stanfield.

Harding and Coolidge need a Republican Senate and House to re-enact a Protective Tariff. Send them--Stanfield and Sinnott and vote the Republican Ticket Straight.

FORM TEMPORARY STATE FARM BUREAU

Malheur Represented on Executive Board of State Organization By V. C. Hickox—To Debate Joining National Body

V. V. Hickox, president of the county Farm Bureau returned from Portland on Monday, where he had been to attend a meeting of the presidents of the county farm Bureaus of Oregon in the interest of a State Federation. A plan for bringing about such an organization was made and a set of by-laws and Constitution adopted for submission to the various County Bureaus for their approval.

A temporary executive committee of six members was elected, one each from six districts into which the State was divided. Geo. Mansfield, president of the Jackson County Farm Bureau was elected President; W. W. Harrah, executive commissioner of the Umatilla County Farm Bureau, vice-president. Mr. Hickox was elected on the Board to represent the Blue Mountain section, comprising Malheur, Baker, Grant, Union, Wallowa and Harney counties.

The purpose for the proposed federation of county Farm Bureaus in Oregon is to bring about concerted action between the counties on all departments of the program of county Farm Bureaus that is of mutual interest and importance. When the State Federation is perfected by the vote of the county Bureaus, the matter of affiliating with the National Farm Bureau Federation, as a State, will be given consideration according to the plans of the committee.
